THE FOUR KEYS

- BLACK opens the suitcase. Hidden in the toilet cistern, reached by the Queen of Hearts.
- DARK BLUE opens the backpack. Hidden in the Dutch oven beside Plate I.
- PURPLE opens the compartment inside the backpack. Taped behind the Milk Crate painting, the very first thing she was handed. The cipher wheel is what tells her.
- LIGHT BLUE is not used. Keep it in your pocket.

THREE BRANCHES, THEN THE LOCK

- Branch A, music, ends at the backgammon set with Plate II.
- Branch B, names, ends with the pen, the pigpen sheet and the black key.
- Branch C, the knife, ends at the Dutch oven with Plate I and the dark blue key.
- The wheel needs Plate I, Plate II and the time. The time comes from the flags. So all three branches must finish.

THE FINAL CARD, IN WHEEL SYMBOLS

Reads: LOOK BEHIND THE FIRST PAINTING. Copy those symbols by hand onto a card and hide it under the meditation cushion.

BEFORE SHE ARRIVES

- Weigh the knife. It must read 79 g. The nearest entries are 58 g and 99 g.
- Check pages 12 and 15 of your copy of The Prophet against the concordance.
- Test the blue-light pen on the wall, and that it wipes off.
- Cut one spare lemon to be sure the joker survives.
- Assemble the wheel at 3:30 and decode the card yourself.
